Itinerary

The itinerary is below.

Transportation (Per Member/Officer/Employee: $45.00 | Accompanying Family Member: $0.00)

Transportation Type	Class	Amount
Ground Transportation	Charter	$45.00

Note

This a charter bus for around 40 attendees. This is a good faith estimate of the total cost per person utilizing the charter bus. This option of transportation was extended to all attendees without regard to their place of employment. Not all of the attendees who are utilizing the charter bus are employed by the Senate or House, nor are all of the individuals listed on the Senate staff attendee list availing themselves of the travel.

Cost Exceeds Per Diem Reason

Our nightly rate is higher than the GSA per diem. We found these costs necessary to book a meeting space that was large enough, private, and had adequate breakout space. The Hyatt Regency Chesapeake hotel proved to be the more affordable option when compared to comparable venues in driving distance of DC. Hill staffers are receiving no preferential treatment and are being provided the same accommodations as the other attendees. This event would still be hosted without congressional participation, although we hope those we have invited can attend.

The purpose of this trip is to provide American Compass members with the opportunity to encounter new political and economic ideas that can help shape a conservative consensus that emphasizes the importance of family, community, and industry to the nation's liberty and prosperity. You are being invited because of your interest in conservative economic policy. If you choose to attend, we will cover your lodging, meals, and provide a charter bus to and from Cambridge, MD and DC.

Sincerely,

Oren Cass

The whole group will convene for a brief primer on the federal budget's structure, and then we will break into small groups to play with a Compass-developed budget model. Each group will need to settle on a package of tax and spending increases and cuts that close the budget by $1 trillion over the next ten years. Choices will be shared and compared on Saturday morning.

Saturday, April 228:00am-9:00am*BREAKFAST*SESSION I: IN SEARCH OF ALIGNMENT

9:00am-12:15pm

After real-time polling to determine the sense of the group on a variety of issues, and a review of budget choices made the prior day, we'll hear from panels on issues of ongoing debate within the realignment and from Ambassador Robert Lighthizer on the best fights to have right now.

9:00am-9:30amREAL-TIME POLLING

Attendees will respond via their mobile devices to a variety of poll questions, seeing the group's responses in real-time. We will also see how the group fixed the federal budget.

9:35am-10:30amPANEL: HOW COMPASSIONATE IS CONSERVATISM

Conservatives have made significant progress in redefining their economic agenda to be more skeptical of markets generally and big business in particular, recognizing the role for public policy in supporting family, community, and industry. But most of what the government actually does is social spending: entitlements, insurance programs, and the safety net. What are the conservative principles that should guide policymakers and what implications does that have for salient political issues like Social Security and Medicare, Obamacare, safety-net work requirements, family policy, drug treatment, and student debt? How do the answers to those questions align with what the American people want?

Feat. Amber Lapp, Research Fellow at the Institute for Family Studies; Caleb Orr, Research Fellow with Boyden Gray & Associates; Charles Correll, Speechwriter for Speaker McCarthy*

Moderated by Chris Griswold

10:30am-10:45amBREAK*10:45am-11:20am*Q&A WITH AMB. LIGHTHIZER

Reconsideration of globalization, trade policy, and the Sino-American relationship have been central priorities for the New Right and among the most significant lasting achievements of the Trump Administration. In some respects, the Biden Administration has carried that work forward, while in others it seems more inclined to backslide. Ambassador Lighthizer will discuss key areas for holding the line or making further progress, and answer attendees' questions.

Moderated by Oren Cass

11:20am-12:15pmPANEL: OUR WOBBLY STOOL

The Reagan coalition's "three-legged stool," supported by economic libertarians, social conservatives, and Cold War hawks, assigned responsibility for different policy domains to different constituencies and held the emphasis on each in balance. At this point, the New Right looks more like a beanbag chair. What are the most important elements of the coalition's economic, social, and foreign policy, how do they fit together, and who should be emphasizing which, when? Are the economic and social emphases in conflict or merely competition, and how can they best complement each other?

Feat. Wells King, Senior Policy Advisor for Senator J.D. Vance; Emily Jashinsky, Culture Editor at The Federalist; Saurabh Sharma, President of American Moment*

Moderated by Oren Cass

12:15pm-1:30pmLUNCH DEBRIEF

1:45pm-4:30pmBREAKOUT: HOW HARD COULD IT REALLY BE?
